

The Apostolic Succession

The Apostolic Succession

The following three lines of Apostolic Succession are only a partial sampling of the seventeen (17) lines that tie the India Christian Mission Church (1897 AD) to the ancient Church of Jesus Christ. In addition to these three, Archbishop Russ McClanahan is included in the Apostolic Succession within the Metropolitan-Archbishops of Albania, the Armenian Catholicate-Patriarchate of Cilicia, Patriarchate of Moscow, Greek Melkite Patriarchate of Antioch, the Catholic - Patriarchate of Assyria, Old Catholic Succession, the Holy Russian Orthodox Synod as well as many others. The first Anglican line that follows is one of three direct Anglican lines the ICM Church has received.

Additional Lines

On Sunday, the seventeenth day of September, nineteen hundred and ninety-five, seven bishops in inter-communion shared each of their lines of Apostolic Succession by mutual subconditione consecration through the communal proclamation of the Nicene Creed, the Invocation of the Holy Spirit through the laying on of hands and anointing with Holy Chrism, with the intent to impart, subconditione, the grace of Episcopal Consecration.

In this service, The Right Reverend Michael D. Owen received two lines of Apostolic Succession not previously held, one of those being a direct Roman Catholic line through the Catholic and Apostolic Church of Brazil, which was passed on through the Most Reverend R. Augustin Sicard.

The other being a direct Anglican line being traced through the Continuing Anglican Church (Anglican Church U.S.A.), the Protestant Episcopal Church, to the See of Canterbury. This line was passed on through the Right Reverend Heron Sam.

In addition to the above, The Right Reverend Michael D. Owen's Orthodox lines of Apostolic Succession were strengthened by the laying on of hands by the Most Reverend Phillip F. Lisuzzo.

On 4th of February, 1996 The Right Reverend Michael D. Owen was the Chief Consecrator for Wayne Boosahda on 4 th Feb 1996.
